

THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12, 1857.

THE WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was sunny, cheerful and cool, decidedly enjoyable.

THE CALDONS.—This depository of crime was doing but a small business yesterday; two new applicants were admitted, and three old brokers were not free.

REAL ESTATE.—That mammoth sale of real estate comes off this day $10,000 of whose faithful officers, M. C. Caver & Co., have until now been engaged in the business. One thousand dollars were received.

FOR LATE PAPERS.—We thank Adams, Eppes, W. H. House & Co., A. C. Wurts, and Lewis and Clegg of the Advertiser, also to W. S. Bunn, of the Dovey Spray and E. Piercy, of the H. R. W. Hill.

THE BUTCHER CASE.—This case will come up for trial at the Criminal Court of Sessions, morning, it is understood, a change of venue will be applied for, that the case may be removed to trial in a adjoining county.

A LOAN.—The Jugger last evening took out the largest load of cotton that has left our levee this season; she had on board twenty-one hundred and thirty-five bales. Twenty or fifteen hundred bales were engaged down the river.

GRAND JURY.—The Grand Jury have found true bills against JONATHAN CARTER for robbery; W. E. CARPENTER, for passing counterfeit money, and MICHAEL GAUNLEY, for murder. Also, two hundred and fifty-four bills were found for violation of the liquor law, for gambling, and for betting at elections.

EASTERN.—A large crowd of people, disengaged from the shooting yesterday, over owned a large portion of the ground on which the city of Nashville now stands; he is reported to be worth six thousand dollars at the present time. Liqueur has been his moral ruin. When arrested he was found lying intoxicated on the floor of the room.

THE GAULT.—This house is daily advancing in the number of its performances and the good order presented among the spectators. To night Mr. COOLCROOK appears in a part acknowledged to be of greater difficulty than any other on the English stage, that of "Iago" in Othello; Mr. CLARKES, takes part of "Othello." We can conceive will be divided by the charming HARRIS, and the force of the character, MARY BROWN, and BARKER taking the lead in the fun.

CENTRAL COTTON.—The case against NELSON WOOD, charged with the murder of Cates DOUGLASS, is still progressing before his honor, Judge McKEEVER. The State is represented by Attorneys General SALE, JOHN S. SALE and PAETON SMITH, Esq.; the defense by John C. FARRINGTON, W. C. CAREY and T. C. COKE, Esq. The argument for the defense was opened on Tuesday, the 7th instant, yesterday to Mr. S. SALE, recent successor to the Memphis bar, is a very lucid, effective and highly creditable speech. Mr. COKE and Mr. CAREY followed on the part of the defense.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.—At 8 o'clock last night a fire was discovered burning from between two houses in the corner of Monroe and Third streets, occupied by Col. MCNAUL's, the Bulletin, and THADEUS VADEN, Esq. The department were quickly on the ground and did good service, but the fire was too well advanced. Most of the furniture was saved, but was much injured in removing. Mr. VADEN's insurance, unfortunately, protected three weeks ago had not been renewed. The fire probably originated from a stove. When the No. 3 Company took up their hose, they found that some switch had cut it in three places with a knife.

SMALL NOTE LAW IN MISSISSIPPI.—SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.—We learn that the law passed at the last session of the Mississippi Legislature, prohibiting under severe penalties, the circulation of bank notes under the denomination of $5, is being rigidly enforced, and that no one need apply for a note of that amount. The law, however, does not prohibit the circulation of bank notes under the denomination of $5, but it gives the power to the Legislature to do so. It is to be hoped that the Legislature will make any accommodation to our Mississippi friends, until further notice, to receive such of these notes as are taken on deposit by the free banks of this city. The list of these banks appears in another column to which attention is directed.

AMUSEMENT.—The well known gambling salaried men will give out their annual Saturday evening. His almost unceasing powers of levity never cease to please.

The much admired Inlet Drummer will give one of those performances that have everywhere been received with so much admiration. The two exhibitions are combined.

NEWSPAPERS.—The editors of the chain-sawing boys have rendered good service by cleaning out gutters in various parts of the city. They will next be employed in grading the Pigeon Road road. The gang is at present twenty-eight strong.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—C. CAREY & CO., sold yesterday, at a short notice of some months, their building on Main street.

The following prices were obtained: Sam, twenty years old, field hand, $700; Maria, twenty-six years old, house girl, $1,025; Hector, thirteen years old, a field hand, $700; Bob, eighteen years old, light mulatto, house girl, $1,000; John, twenty years old, field hand, $400; David, twenty-three years old, black, $1,425; Louis, eighteen years old, field hand, $800; Thomas, twenty-two years old, field hand, $1,000; Eliza, twenty years old, field hand, $1,000; Daffney, twenty-three years old, field hand, $800. An aggregate of $10,965 for the seven negroes.

CAPS COMING FORWARD.—There are strong indications of the crops coming forward from the West. The New York Post bears the following from the Tribune of St. Louis: "West by one of the banks of that city simultaneously with the arrival of a large amount of specie from England. The Philadelphia Press says:

"There are inferred that the Bank of the State of Tennessee has proposed to two banks in New York city to deposit with them $2,000,000 in the hands of Tennessee, as security for drafts to be drawn on the State of Tennessee, so that that bank for the purpose of facilitating the getting of the crops of that State to market."

RIVER MASTERS.—The river was still rising. The levee was very quiet. The arrivals since our last report were, From New Orleans the Philadelphia for St. Louis, and the Woodford for Louisville; from Louisville the Enterprise for New Orleans; from St. Louis the Louisiana for New Orleans.

The Jugger left last night with 2137 bales of cotton, bound for New Orleans. The Enterprise to New Orleans, the Woodford to St. Louis, the Philadelphia to St. Louis, the Enterprise to Louisville, the Enterprise to New Orleans; from St. Louis the Louisiana for New Orleans.
